Thank you for your interest in supporting the AIA California Healthcare Facilities Forum, a symposium of 200+ Healthcare industry leaders and designers from California and throughout the United States. Many forces are driving change in the design and construction of healthcare facilities. From the realization that aging is not the same as it was for previous generations, to the explosion of medical technologies which have led to a myriad of lifesaving and life-enhancing inventions. This Forum will examine how these, and other key factors are influencing healthcare delivery and their impact on facilities of the future. Learn about the latest challenges to California hospitals, regulatory changes, demographics and other issues healthcare Owners are facing. Your support of this event will be seen by decision makers throughout California.

AIA California will require payment at signing of contract.

Full payment is required upon execution of the sponsorship agreement. All sponsorship payments will be made in one lump sum to AIA California. A designated portion of each sponsorship, as outlined in the sponsorship benefits above, will be allocated to the California Architectural Foundation in support of the Kain Scholarship.

The California Architectural Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. The portion of the sponsorship allocated to the Foundation may qualify as a tax-deductible charitable contribution, as permitted by law. The remaining balance of the sponsorship payment made to AIA California does not qualify as a charitable contribution and is not tax-deductible.

Appropriate documentation reflecting the allocation to the California Architectural Foundation will be provided for tax reporting purposes.
